

HELP END SEXUAL VIOLENCE

A woman is raped every minute in the United States.
Her life is disrupted by this act of violence, and so are the lives of her family, friends and co-workers.
You can make a difference!

BECOME A RAPE CRISIS ADVOCATE

WE GUARANTEE YOUR LIFE WILL NEVER BE THE SAME.

Through our intensive training program, you will –

- Gain an overview of the historical, psychological and socio-cultural roots of violence against women
- Develop crisis intervention and active listening skills
- Join a strong, supportive and dedicated community of volunteers
- Learn how to support survivors in regaining a sense of control and empowerment
- Become familiar with community, medical and legal options for survivors of sexual assault
- Become a state-certified sexual assault counselor

As a trained volunteer, you will handle a weekly shift during which you may –

- Respond to phone calls received on our 24-hour crisis line
- Provide short term, in-person crisis counseling
- Interact with other agencies and individuals on behalf of a survivor
- Make a huge difference in the life of someone affected by sexual assault

NEXT TRAINING OPPORTUNITY:
JANUARY 17, 2007 – MARCH 19, 2007
MONDAY & WEDNESDAY EVENINGS FROM 6PM – 10PM

CALL FOR AN APPLICATION: (805) 963-6832, X. 19

SBRCC extends a special invitation to MEN and BILINGUAL INDIVIDUALS (Spanish/English).
Additional training and supervision available for MFT trainees & interns.

SANTA BARBARA RAPE CRISIS CENTER / CENTRO CONTRA LA VIOLACION SEXUAL
433 East Cañón Perdido Street • www.sbrapecrisiscenter.org • (805) 963-6832
24-Hour Hotline: 564-3696 (Ask for a Rape Crisis Advocate)

SBRCC is an inclusive organization that welcomes individuals of all gender identities, sexual orientations, races, classes, abilities and ages.